SOURCE

Polish Tanks near Konin.

- 25X1 1. On 29 August 1952, source saw from the train three JS-2 type tanks [] 25X1
- [] The tanks had Polish crews.

WOP Battalion in Friedland.

2. Prior to mid-June, a WOP unit wearing green epaulets and equipped with rifles and submachine guns, were quartered in a building close to the station. Source learned from acquaintances that a WOP battalion with three companies of about 130 men each was stationed in the town. The battalion formerly dispatched patrols to check the Polish-Czech border and the Friedland railroad station. No border traffic was permitted in the area of Friedland. No other detailed information was available.

25X1X [] Comment. Previous information indicated that in 1950 a WOP unit stationed in Friedland was subordinate to the headquarters of the 23d WOP Brig in Glatz. This unit possibly is the battalion mentioned in the present report.
